The latest addition to our Cellar Note series, this Pinot Noir is a captivating and delectable wine. Representing a notably smaller vintage for us, this blend originates from three of our esteemed single-vineyard wines: El Diablo, Bush Crispo, and our Estate. The vintage, characterized by a warm, dry summer, yielded small, concentrated clusters.

On the nose, spiced Santa Rosa plum, black cherry, and clove dominate the aromatics of this enticing cuvée, embodying the yin and yang of fruit from our Russian River vineyards. As the wine breathes, umami notes reminiscent of prosciutto and spice emerge adding depth to this compelling wine. On the palate, the concentration of the vintage manifests in dense fruit and refined tannins. Its bright, harmonious acidity leads to a delightful finish.

While ready to be enjoyed today, this wine promises graceful evolution over the years ahead, making it an ideal companion for cellaring and pairing with your favorite seasonal fare.
